

Vivid on-the-spot sketches by young

STAR Rand 17-9-63 student

LOOK for a vivid and lively drawing (shown on left) of two jazz musicians in action on the walls of the foyer of the Playhouse in Braamfontein tomorrow evening. It is one of a series on the subject by a young Johannesburg student, Nils Burwitz, a final-year arts man at Wits University.

Burwitz did his series of brilliant black and white, on-the-spot sketches at city jazz evenings during the year. About 20 of them will be on show at "Jazz at the Playhouse," an evening of jazz, promoted by Miss Maxine Lauré and Mr. Julian Beinart, which opens at 8.15 tomorrow evening. A big band made up of the cream of the crop of contemporary African jazzmen, will be performing.

Burwitz, who has exhibited on the Fame and Promise exhibition in Johannesburg, was recently awarded a R200 drawing prize on the National Art Show arranged by the Institute of Race Relations in Durban.
