

WEST RAND CATS GO, GO, GO FOR THE FESTIVAL

BY DOC BIKITSHA

RANDFONTEIN:— Never has a response been as good as the one shown by West Rand hepcats and musicians at the Jazz Festival eliminations over the week-end.

When Dan Poho and Meshack Mosia turned up at the Madubula Hall, a crowd was waiting patiently outside for opening time.

Read Gordon, dear fans, until the Old Master gets back into these columns. Have patience.

Chris McGregor and Ian Bernhardt graced the Hall for few minutes before scuttling for Joburg.

Shot in the arm

Tomorrow at Orlando Stadium the history of South African jazz will be getting a shot in the arm. The best in the country will be displaying what makes them tick.

Dorkay House is in a turmoil as combos practise diligently for tomorrow's great day.

Whacking

Dudu Phokwane (alto) and others are around. From the West Rand, the Jazz Prophets and few singing groups will be there.

Mr. Ian Bernhardt of Union Artists said that all efforts were being made to make the Festival a whacking success.

Dear ole Gordon

Dear ole Gordon Siwani, that sports writer who digs his augmented sevenths, sharps and flats has written about the Festival.
