Dear Sheila,

I have such a lot of feelings as I write.
I have lost a hero, a father & God & a friend, yet I can see him carefree & young and already quite at home in heaven, finding beyond all he had hoped for.
I'm so mindful of all you have lost & yet very very grateful at the wonderful partnership you and Bill had, & how much you have done for so many of us.

I remember the fun of singing above: '77 & the taxi of Sri Lanka, & the Bible studies & Thursday evenings & your courage as Bill was a true prophet - unappreciated by most on earth & honoured above most in heaven How we shall miss him. Just two weeks ago I was talking about him & his prophecy to a bible study group.

It seems so clear that you & she were used by God to light a new wave before he died - still able to be God's vehicle & not destroyed by illness first.
Our continued love & support & appreciation are of course yours.
With love Helu.
