

28th August, 1901

Bishop George Savarty
& his wife, Sylvia.

My dear Mrs Burrett,
and I were very sorry
to hear that your husband had passed away. However, we thank God that he slipped away so quietly to the Lord Whom he loved
and served so well.
Please accept our best felt sympathy. We trust that God will comfort you and your family and strengthen
you to bear this bereavement.
Archbishop Bill will be missed not only by the members of his family, but by all who had the privilege of knowing him and

benefitting from his ministry. I shall always be grateful to him for all he taught me. I still have fond memories of our weekly
worship, breakfast
and staff meetings.

To comfort you you
will have pleasant memories of a godly husband
and father and the hope of the resurrection.
God bless you.

With lots of love and prayer, from Sylvia and Yours very sincerely, + P
