Very dear Sheila,

With sincere
and prayerful sympathy

Although we are sure you must know this
prayer very well,
we send it to you
in case you don't.
It is one of our favorite prayers & has strengthened & comforted us on several occasions.

I endorse everything that Harry has said

How you must
miss your strong,
gentle Bill. Let,
amongst hundreds
of others, are the richer for the 2 of you beeching our lives.

May you be carried
along on eagles wings
With many prayers,
thoughts & much love
from.

 e seem to give them back to You,

O God, Who gave them to us.
Yet, as You did not lose them in giving, so do we not lose them by their return. Not as the world gives, do You give, O Lover of souls. What You give, You do not take away, for what is Yours is ours also if we are Yours. And life is eternal and love is immortal, and death is only an horizon and an horizon is nothing save the limit of our sight. Lift us up, strong Son of God, that we may see further; draw us closer to Yourself that we may know ourselves to be nearer to our loved ones who are with You.
