

MELODY MAKER

Hazel Miller is presenting two memorial concerts as a tribute to Mongezi Feza, who died last December. Friends and colleagues raised a fund to send his body home to South Africa, and musicians from all over South Africa attended the funeral. Profits from the concerts will be used to settle outstanding debts, and money remaining will go into a fund and be sent to Mongezi's family. The first concert, on Monday (9), features Harry Miller's Isipingo plus the Stan Tracey Trio with guests Malcolm Griffiths, Alan Skidmore, Evan Parker and Art Themen.

Other groups in which Mongezi worked, Jabula Spear and Brotherhood Of Breath, will feature at the second evening (February 16).
