Dear Mary,

You are much in our thoughts and prayers and we should like to offer you our sincerest and most heartfelt sympathy.

We have greatly valued the contact we have had with your father - a man of great modesty, naturalness, quiet strength and warmth.

You have been so very close to your parents that you are going to feel the loss more keenly than is usual in the loss of a parent and we hearts reach out to you. We regret that we cannot find the eloquence which you found she writing to us so recently on the passing of my Mother.

With sympathetic thought or prayers of

Fred, Sarah & Robert.
