Dear Todd,

I saw Ian Bernhardt in Durban yesterday, and he told me that when he left England a couple of weeks ago, you told him that two songs were ready and would be sent to me almost immediately. He also told me that one of the songs you have not yet received, but I don't know which one this would be, so I am taking the trouble of sending you a copy of the letter I wrote to you on January 16, plus still another copy of Lindiwe's song. This will make the third time I have sent you this song, and so I intend registering this letter.

Now I am sending you an SOS., and asking you to pay particular attention to No 2 in my letter of January 16.

I hear that KING KONG has been financially successful, and we are both very glad for your sake, but I wish you knew how anxious we are to hear from you personally.

Love to you all from us both.

Yours ever,

Alan Paton
