

MESSAGE FROM THE VICE-CHANCELLOR

Rhodes University is proud to send out, as cultural ambassadors, the members of the Chamber Choir. These students reflect the University's commitment to an open society where academic achievement is the main basis for success.

We live in a country with many musical traditions - African, European and Eastern - and this rich mine of musical experience makes South Africa an exciting place to study and enjoy music.

The Rhodes University Chamber Choir would like you to experience some of their joy in music as they present their programme, which has been carefully planned to include work from a number of musical traditions.

Shakespeare, in Henry VIII, Act III, expressed the effect of music on the heart of man: "In sweet music is such art, killing care and grief of heart". I hope that the music you hear today will lift your hearts and give you pleasure.

DR D S HENDERSON

Vice-Chancellor, Rhodes University

September 4, 1985