Dearest Sheila

Peter and I were so sad to hear of Bill's death. I know he, as do we all, "goes the way of all the earth" (I was reading that bit of "Kings" this morning!) but you cannot but be grieving and miserable. We pray that this stressful time will not be too burdensome and that you will soon, be able to be peaceful and find comfort.

Bless you and all your family.

We both send love and sincere sympathy.

Yours.
