Dear Sheila,

You and Andrew, Stephen and Mary are much in our thoughts at the present time. We do feel for you.

Nan and I remember what good friends you were to us as colleagues in our early married days at Michaelhouse, and how privileged we were to have Andrew and Stephen in our charge at Cordwallers. You were kind to us at Bishopscourt in 1981 and gave us a fascinating tour of the house and garden.

We have both always had the greatest admiration for Bill — and you.

You will be inundated with letters.
Please do not think of replying to this short one.

Memories are a great comfort as one grows old. Our memories of the Burnetts are very happy ones.

Yours very sincerely and with every good wish,

Ronald and Nan.
