IMPORTANT NOTICE

This INDEX OF OBJECTIONABLE LITERATURE leaves this Office fully up-to-date.

The Service under the Scheme will supply you with "fresh" pages, per Post, whenever the Lists are published in the Government Gazette, together with any lists received from the Department of Customs and Excise; for all alterations, additions or deletion to the Index.

We need not stress the utmost importance of keeping your INDEX OF OBJECTIONABLE LITERATURE up-to-date, this is very essential, and if not done, the Index will be of very little use to you.

FOR YOUR OWN PROTECTION DO THIS WORK THE SAME DAY THE SUPPLEMENTS ARRIVE. THE SUPPLEMENTS TO THE INDEX, ARE USUALLY SENT OUT A FEW DAYS AFTER THE LISTS HAVE BEEN PUBLISHED IN THE GOVERNMENT GAZETTE, HOWEVER, FOR LARGER LISTS, WHEN MORE PAGES ARE INVOLVED, THEY ARE THEN SENT OUT A WEEK LATER. WE CAN ASSURE OUR CLIENTS THAT EVERY ENDEAVOUR IS MADE TO SPEED UP THE SUPPLEMENTS OF ALTERATIONS.

For a "check-up", to be sure that you receive every Supplement that is despatched, you will find overleaf, a page containing a list of numbers in numerical order. All "fresh" and "new" pages are numbered serially, as they are sent out; and a record kept at this Office. You will always find this check-up number in "brackets" on the top, of every page. EXAMPLE (999).

When you receive the Supplements, check up on the pages you have received, referring at the same time to the "Weekly Explanatory Sheet", to see if you have received all the pages mentioned on the sheet. The corresponding Serial Number is now marked off on the "Check-up Sheet" (overleaf). When the next lot of Supplements arrive, you once again compare the serial numbers, and you will note immediately, if you have received the previous set of Supplements or not. If any are missing, send us a postcard, or phone this Office, and these will be posted to you per return of Post. All new Index's leave this Office with all issued numbers lined out.

WHILST EVERY ENDEAVOUR AND CARE HAS BEEN MADE AND WILL BE MADE, TO SUPPLY THE CORRECT INFORMATION, RESPONSIBILITY CANNOT BE ACCEPTED FOR ANY WRONG INTERPRETATION OF THE REGULATIONS ETC., ERRORS, OMISSIONS, LOSS OR MISCARRIAGE IN THE POST OR FOR ANY REASON BEYOND OUR CONTROL.

The work of exchanging the "fresh" and /or "new" Pages with the corresponding old Pages, and checking up, takes only a few minutes of your time when the amendments are received by you.

NOTE:

ACT 26 OF 1963 – SECTION 5(1)(c).

(c) No person shall except under the authority of a permit issued in terms of section eight –

- (i) import any publication or object with a soft cover of which the selling price to an importer in the Republic does not exceed fifty cents; or
- (ii) import any publication or object of which the importation has been prohibited by the board under paragraph (d) of sub-section (1) of that section.

NOTE:

THE BLACK INDICATOR MARK – ■ PRINTED ON EVERY "FRESH" PAGE SENT OUT – INDICATES THE LAST ADDITION OR ALTERATION.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

This INDEX OF OBJECTIONABLE LITERATURE leaves this Office fully up-to-date.

The Service under the Scheme will supply you with "fresh" pages, per Post, whenever the Lists are published in the Government Gazette, together with any lists received from the Department of Customs and Excise; for all alterations, additions or deletions to the Index.

We need not stress the utmost importance of keeping your INDEX OF OBJECTIONABLE LITERATURE up-to-date, this is very essential, and if not done, the Index will be of very little use to you.

FOR YOUR OWN PROTECTION DO THIS WORK THE SAME DAY THE SUPPLEMENTS ARRIVE. THE SUPPLEMENTS TO THE INDEX, ARE USUALLY SENT OUT A FEW DAYS AFTER THE LISTS HAVE BEEN PUBLISHED IN THE GOVERNMENT GAZETTE, HOWEVER, FOR LARGER LISTS, WHEN MORE PAGES ARE INVOLVED, THEY ARE THEN SENT OUT A WEEK LATER. WE CAN ASSURE OUR CLIENTS THAT EVERY ENDEAVOUR IS MADE TO SPEED UP THE SUPPLEMENTS OF ALTERATIONS.

For a "check-up", to be sure that you receive every Supplement that is despatched, you will find overleaf, a page containing a list of numbers in numerical order. All "fresh" and "new" pages are numbered serially, as they are sent out; and a record kept at this Office. You will always find this check-up number in "brackets" on the top, of every page. EXAMPLE (999).

When you receive the Supplements, check up on the pages you have received, referring at the same time to the "Weekly Explanatory Sheet", to see if you have received all the pages mentioned on the sheet. The corresponding Serial Number is now marked off on the "Check-up Sheet" (overleaf). When the next lot of Supplements arrive, you once again compare the serial numbers, and you will note immediately, if you have received the previous set of Supplements or not. If any are missing, send us a postcard, or phone this Office, and these will be posted to you per return of Post. All new Index's leave this Office with all issued numbers lined out.

WHILST EVERY ENDEAVOUR AND CARE HAS BEEN MADE AND WILL BE MADE, TO SUPPLY THE CORRECT INFORMATION, RESPONSIBILITY CANNOT BE ACCEPTED FOR ANY WRONG INTERPRETATION OF THE REGULATIONS ETC., ERRORS, OMITTANCES, LOSS OR MISCARRIAGE IN THE POST OR FOR ANY REASON BEYOND OUR CONTROL.

This Index is set out in two sections. The first section from pages 1 to 186 is the list of literature banned from importation into the Republic of South Africa. The second section from pages 1.A. onwards, is a list of literature which has been submitted to the Publications Control Board and is under embargo. Apart from the above two sections, a further list which is printed on the reverse side of the Explanatory Sheet is supplied, listing publications which have been declared not to be objectionable by the Publications Control Board. This list can either be filed separately for reference purposes or destroyed whichever you prefer.

The work of exchanging the "fresh" and/or "new" Pages with the corresponding old Pages, and checking up, takes only a few minutes of your time when the amendments are received by you.

K.J.K. Jacobsen.
