

Last Saturday night the 30 year old South-African trumpeter Mongezi Feza died of pneumonia in a South-London hospital. Mongezi, who came to London in 1965 with the Chris McGregor Band, had never been able to see his homeland or family since he settled here. A fund is being raised for his burial in South-Africa, and contributions should be sent to: Lesley Roberts, 22 Clifton Gardens, W9.
